

Risks and disclaimer

This document is provided for your information only and that under no circumstance should it be considered an effort by Nexinter and/or NextHash to either promote or sell stocks or securities on its platform or on any other related or associated company's platform.

NIXT tokens are not securities

Participants in the IEO comprehend and fully accept the fact that NIXT tokens are not securities under any circumstance, neither are they registered with any government entity as a security. Participants comprehend and fully accept the fact that ownership of NIXT tokens does not grant them the right to expect or to receive proceeds, revenue, or other payments or returns arising from the attainment, holding, administration or disposal of the Nexinter and/or NextHash platforms.

NIXT tokens are not to be considered an investment

Although the company will do its best to proceed with the project as described within this whitepaper and complete it at the best of its ability, unforeseen circumstances might not allow the completion of the project in whole or partially. NIXT tokens can never be considered an official or legally binding investment of any kind and purchasing the token is done at own risk. Any and all types of funds collected during the IEO are in no way insured. Funds may lose their value in whole or completely without warning.

No form of warrantee of proceed or revenue provided

The acquisition of NIXT tokens is done at the participant's own risk and under no circumstance should the participant hold Nexinter and/or NextHash accountable for any kind of losses, as there are no warranties that the NIXT token will increase in value or hold its value.

NIXT Token holding benefits

Participants expressly comprehends and fully accepts the fact that all NIXT tokens holding benefits, described in the T&C, the Whitepaper, Website or in any other public place are provided for informational purposes only and can at any point in time be subject to change, due to the change in the value of the NIXT token. Additionally, participants fully comprehend and agree that holders of NIXT tokens can be excluded from participating in upcoming DSOs, due to provisions set forth by different regulations and regulatory bodies.

Risks associated with regulation

IEO's/STO's and blockchain-based cryptocurrencies are mostly unregulated at present. Efforts are being made by various regulatory bodies around the world to regulate or even restrict the cryptocurrency market. Such actions can greatly affect the functionality and value of the NIXT token as well as that of other cryptocurrencies.

Risks associated with new technology

NIXT tokens and cryptocurrency tokens in general are a relatively new and untested technology. Due to this nature, technology-related unforeseen events may occur at any time. Participants comprehend and fully accept all types of related risks involved.

Right to close the IEO

Participants comprehend and fully accept the fact that Nexinter and/or NextHash reserve the right to end the IEO at any given time after its start, if Nexinter and/or NextHash deems that enough tokens were sold.

Fund refunds

In case our IEO and distribution of NIXT tokens is cancelled, the funds collected by Nexinter and/or NextHash will be returned back to the wallets of their respective providers.

Marketing

Nexinter and/or NextHash bear no responsibility to cover any claims made by its promoting/marketing associates.

Integration

This whitepaper does not constitute an official agreement of any kind and the information provided herein is for informational purposes only. Project parameters, dates, specifications provided as well as other details technical are subject to change without prior notice.
